5 Playing Stages

Time Park has To win prizes, you catch winning signs displayed on the LCD and shoot the right symbols. In other words, you need to know a variety of machine actions that represent winning signs for oncoming prizes. Here are examples.

There are other patterns that tell you oncoming prizes.

Other than these machine actions on the LCD, Hanabi Hyakkei gives you signs for oncoming prizes. First, you hear voices when you start spinning reels or stop the reels. The voice may be Don chan's shouting "Oatari (You won)!" or Hazuki's saying, "Big Kakutei (A Big Bonus affirmative)!" Second, you experience a deplay -- when you pull down the spin knob, the machine doesn't respond immoderately. This may be a sign for "Cherry" or a bonus round. Third, the machine flashes light bulbs. When you observe the flashing two games in a row, you are most likely to win a bonus round. If you see a sequence, flash-no flash-flash in three games, you are less likely to win. A single flashing is the least chance to win.
